INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office which originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information which you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was approved by the Director, Vermont Service Center. Based upon information obtained from the beneficiary during his visa issuance process at the American Embassy, the director determined that the beneficiary was not clearly eligible for the benefit sought. Accordingly, the director properly served the petitioner with notice of his intent to revoke approval of the visa petition and his reasons therefore, and ultimately revoked the approval of the petition. A subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Associate Commissioner for Examinations. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on motion to reopen and reconsider. The motion will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a wholesaler and dealer of watches and precious materials with two employees and a gross annual income of $240,000. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as an accountant for a period of three years. The director determined the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary is qualified to perform the duties of a specialty occupation.

On appeal, counsel had provided additional information in support of the appeal.

The Associate Commissioner dismissed the appeal reasoning that the petitioner had not submitted sufficient information to demonstrate that the beneficiary qualified to perform duties in a specialty occupation.

On motion, the petitioner's president indicates that he has additional evidence to be considered. To date, however, no additional evidence has been received by this office. Therefore, the record must be considered complete.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(2) states, in part, that:

Requirements for motion to reopen. A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be provided in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(4) states, in part, that:

Processing motions in proceedings before the Service. A motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed.

The petitioner has not provided any new facts or additional information in support of the motion. Therefore, the motion has not been properly filed, and must be dismissed.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
